

FORUM PROGRAMME

FRIDAY 18 - SUNDAY 20
JULY 2014

FRIDAY 18 JULY

TIME	SESSION	CONTENTS
1700 - 1900	Registration and welcome drinks	Collection of delegate bag.
1900 - 1915	Welcome to GIF14	Introduction to the Forum.
1915 - 2000	Keynote Presentation: HEALTH IN MILLENNIUM DEVELOPMENT	Alan Lopez, Chair of Global Health, University of Melbourne. Vice-Chair, Global Burden of Disease study (Institute of Health Metrics and Evaluation) How far have we come in meeting health MDGs and where have we fallen short?!
2000 - 2010	Cultural programme	Charlie Ranger and Michael Argus: Laughter, a universal language
2020 - 2115	Global Café	Learn about the stories and experiences of global change-makers in workshop groups.
2115 - 2230	Global Health Drinks	Introduce yourself to the delegates in a relaxed environment over a drink or two.

SATURDAY 19 JULY

TIME	SESSION	CONTENTS
0900 - 0920	Keynote address: DEVELOP YOUR AGENCY FOR CHANGE	Tim Dixon: Chief Political Strategist, Purpose. Former Speechwriter to the Prime Minister of Australia Given the scale and scope of health inequities, how might we be able to make a difference?!
0920 - 1010	Panel discussion: CREDIBLE AND AUTHENTIC VOICES	Using creative strategies to build your narrative for change.
1010 - 1020	Cultural programme	NCOFFREE Shorts
1020 - 1050	Morning tea	Ethically-responsible snacks provided by HEAT catering
1050 - 1150	Family time I: Identifying the problem	Work with our partner organisations on developing health solutions to real-world problems.
1200 - 1250	1. How might we reframe debates?	Tim Dixon, Purpose: Communicating and the challenges of effective advocacy.
	2. How might we consider our actions?	Prof. Paul Komesaroff, Founder, Global Reconciliation: Exploring the ethical and moral considerations when choosing your actions in global health
	3. How might we use digital tools for collaborative innovation?	Alvaro Maz, Founder, Creative Suburbs and Raul Caceres, Digital Program Manager, ChildFund Australia: Mastering technology to help you work collaboratively.
	4. How might we invest for impact?	Will Richardson, Impact Investment Group: Solving social and environmental issues through markets.
	5. How might we cultivate community?	Dori Tunstall, A/Prof Swinburne University: Creating a community of global citizens.
	6. How might we consume consciously?	Gordon Renouf, Founder, Otter; Former Director of Campaigns, CHOICE: Making a difference by making more ethical choices in your everyday life.
1250 - 1350	Lunch and trade show	Delicious food and displays of organisations who are making a difference in their field.

TIME	SESSION	CONTENTS
1350 - 1450	Keynote Presentation: POLITICAL DETERMINANTS OF HEALTH	Prof. Ilona Kickbusch (Germany): Director, Global Health Programme at the Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies, Geneva. Dr Sigrun Møgedal (Norway): Author, The Lancet-University of Oslo Commission on Global Governance for Health.
1450 - 1500	Cultural programme	A picture paints 1000 words - The power of photography: Desh Balasubramaniam from Ondru
1510 - 1600	Family time II: Problem Solving	Generating ideas for your problem.
1600 - 1630	Afternoon tea and poster viewing	View fellow delegates' research in global health over tasty treats.
1630 - 1730	1. Cultures and futures: Indigenous health	Dr Alyssa Vass, Aboriginal Resource and Development Services NT ; A/Prof Jane Freemantle, Melbourne University ; Peter Lewis, ATSI People's Rights Advocacy Lead, Oxfam How do we ensure access to health in our own backyard?
	2. Affordable medicine	Dr Jennifer Cohn, Medical director, MSF Access Campaign ; Dr Nick Chapman, Senior Analyst, Policy Cures ; Bryan Collinsworth, Executive Director, Universities Allied for Essential Medicines Dr Deb Gleeson, Lecturer, Latrobe University. Access to medicines - How do we change the system to ensure equitable access?
	3. Health care and the poverty trap	Prof Ilona Kickbusch, Dr Peter Annear, Nossal Institute , Dr David Legge, Scholar Emeritus, Latrobe School of Public Health How do we design health systems to protect people from poverty as a result of illness?
	4. Where there is no doctor?	Dr Sigrun Møgedal; Dr Ted Lankaster, Founder, Interhealth ; Nola Henry, aid worker, Red Cross Australia ; Prof. Paul Komesaroff, Founder, Global Reconciliation. How do we provide care where there is no doctor?
1800 onwards	Global Gathering Global Ideas Forum Social Event 1000 Pound Bend	Networking with delegates, speakers and Forum alumni over drinks and nibbles whilst enjoying the Ondru photo exhibition and Make Poverty History short films finalists from the Human Rights Film Festival.

SUNDAY 20 JULY

TIME	SESSION	CONTENTS
0900 - 0920	Keynote address: CREATIVE THINKING FOR CHANGE	Lizzie Brown: CEO, Engineers without Borders ; Founder, LINK festival for design, technology and social change .
0920 - 1020	Panel discussion: Design thinking Is it time to start thinking more creatively to solve global health problems?	Lizzie Brown: CEO, Engineers without Borders Wesley Rodricks, Creative Director, Thankyou Water Chris Vanstone, Director of Co-design, The Australian Centre for Social Innovation Alvaro Maz, Founder, Creative Suburbs
1030 - 1110	Family time III: The Pitch	Solutions and pitch.
1110 - 1130	Morning Tea	Ethically-responsible snacks provided by HEAT catering
1130 - 1200	Fred Hollows Address: A financing framework for eye health in low- and middle-income countries	Dr Lachlan McDonald, Senior Health Economist, Fred Hollows Foundation
1200 - 1230	Fred Hollows Innovation Award	Hear from the winner about their innovative global health project.
1240 - 1340	Lunch and trade show	Delicious food and displays of organisations who are making a difference in their field.
1340 - 1450	Career panel: How to contribute to global health in your career from successful individuals in medicine, design, social enterprise, allied health and more.	Selina Lo, Senior Editor, The Lancet Ted Lankaster, Founder, Interhealth UK Dino Asproloupos, Project Manager and Board member, MSF Australia Natalie Gray, Oxfam Alexandra Phelan, Global health lawyer, Adjunct Prof Georgetown Law Chantelle Baxter, Co-founder, One Girl
1450 - 1500	Cultural programme	Joel McKerrow: Poetry, an alternative and emotive expression of ideas.
1510 - 1610	1. How might we find out, identify and prioritise problems?	Chris Vanstone, Director of Co-Design, The Australian Centre for Social Innovation : Collecting public opinion to create change.
	2. How might we fund our project?	Pete Yao, Chief Impact Officer, Thankyou Group : Raising money for your cause.
	3. How might we become more self-aware?	Elise Bialylew, Founder, Mindful in May : Relating effectively to your experiences.
	4. How might we apply legal frameworks to global health?	Alexandra Phelan, Global health lawyer, Adjunct Prof Georgetown Law From the individual to the community
	5. How might we measure our success?	TBC Learning from the past and embracing change.
1615 - 1645	Closing address: Back to the Future?	Mark Dybul: Executive Director, The Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria From the clinic to global leadership: building on the movement for health equity in 2015 and beyond.
1700 - 1715	Close and thank you	What we have learnt and where to from here.